The Washington Treaty.

Both Houses of the New Brunswick

Legislature have adopted, by a unanimous vote, the resolutions condemning the terms of the Treaty of Washington, so far as they relate to fisheries. At the 1st of June, the House of Assembly passed the resolution, to be voted up to the Senate.

Mr. Trembley contributed an interesting description of that mighty engineeringfeat, the bridge across the Mississippi at St. Louis. Among the other pictorial papers are "Lights and Shadows of the War," "The Mother of the Empire," "William," and "Leopold and his Son." The number will fully up to the average excellence of the magazine, which occupies a well-deserved position among the periodicals of the land.

The AMERICAN ODD FELLOW is on our table.

We notice in its contents a great variety of excellent family reading matter, including sketches of travel and adventure, stories of the Dominion, departments for the home, circle, society, and curiosities, facts, pearls of thought, miscellany and poetry, papers on the workings and tenets of Odd Fellowship, &c., &c. Published by the A. New York, $0.25 per year.

GOREY'S LADY'S BOOK for June, looks like a bright and interesting volume.

The High Joint Committee of Washington and the Dominion Provincial interests has convened to decide what should be done about the fisheries.

Friend Trembley has accepted the position of editor of the "American Odd

Fellow," and has written a fine article on the subject, which is well worth reading. It is a good article.

Weekly Gazette and Reporter.

FRIDAY, JUNE 9, 1871.

Weymouth Agricultural & Industrial Society.

At a meeting of the Directors of the Weymouth Agricultural and Industrial Society, held June 2d inst., it was decided to have their fair of July 4th of this year conducted as last year. The Superintendent was authorized to hire the Hall for the afternoon and evening; $20 was appropriated for refreshments for early fruits, flowers, and vegetables. Henry Dyer, Orson White, and Eric T. Joy were chosen as a committee on fruits and vegetables, and Geo. Hollis, Mrs. Silas Canterbury, and Mrs. Belinda Curtis a committee on flowers. The committee appointed last Spring to solicit contributions to the Annual Fair are desired to solicit contributions to this. As some may have forgotten, the Committee I will repeat them: C. T. Robbins, Sam' Cleverly, Hen' White, Sam'l Thompson, Son, Jacob F. Dizer, Silas Canterbury, Erastus Nash, Prince L. Thayer, B. F. Laeke, P. S. Torrey, Jos. Huves, Henry Dyer, Martin Vining, Justin Reed, Eric T. Joy, Eliza Sherman, Joshua Binney, Geo. W. Lorky, Eben L. Pool, M. C. Dizer, Alvyn B. Derby, Gen. N. Blanchard. Ample refreshments, in the form of fruit, ice creams, pastry, confectionery, will be for sale.

It was voted to appropriate $150, for a horse-drawn or railed cart to Weymouth people, and the sum of $500 by only—so in case suitable horses are not entered by the members or the people of the town, by the 20th inst., the committee will solicit entries from abroad. The whole business of the races was placed in the hands of the committee on horses, of which Leonard B. Turrell is chairman.

The track has just been put in the most thorough repair and the Hall, fences, and out-buildings, whitewashed. Messrs Elbridge Nash, Thos. H. Humphreys, Eric T. Joy, Jacob F. Dizer, Joshua Binney, C. W. Hastings, Alvah Raymond, Jr., S. S. Spear, F. S. Torrey, and Elbridge Nash were chosen to take charge of the whole matter of refreshments, with full powers to provide whatever the interest of the occasion requires.

The use of the grounds of the society was given to my Base Ball Club in Weymouth to play a game for practice by the Club playing the Sun's of the grounds to be present during the time they are using the grounds, and each Club is responsible for damage done by my person during their occupancy.

The Society will spare no expense to make the occasion one of interest, thus furnishing to the people of the town an entertainment at home exceeding any in our neighboring towns. All that is now needed is a generous contribution for the fire-works and a hearty cooperation on the part of the people to make the occasion a perfect success.

W. M.

Quick Trip.

Schaefer Northern Light, Capt. R. N. Cushing, of Old Spain, master, arrived in Cushing Saturday, May 29, with 175 barrels of mackerel, the first arrival of that part of the season. The trip was made in two small vessels. The vessel carried fifteen men, and is owned by W. H. Steel, of Gloucester. The Captain reports that when off the Highlands of Neverland, 25 miles N. W. by West, 20 miles distant from the fleet, struck mackerel very plenty, the largest and fattest he ever caught at this season of the year, but if they had had a better supply of salt could have taken fifty barrels more as well as not. They had a very rough passage home, carried away gall-topsail, stay-sail, and top-sail. The vessel was repaired as soon as she arrived, the mackerel packed out, and Capt. Cushing has gone on a second trip South, confident of good success, as on his first voyage. The Captain is bound to go "high line" from Gloucester, and may success attend him.

The Nation's Dead.

Was the title of an excellent discourse preached by Rev. Mr. Bowes at the Baptist Church, Weymouth Landing, last Sunday morning. The intense heat prevented many from attending the service, and they thereby lost the opportunity of hearing a timely and patriotic discourse, commemorative of the dead heroes of the war of the rebellion.

Supreme Judicial Court.

Mr. Fernand, et al., in equity, vs. inhabitants of the Town of Quincy. This is a suit in equity brought to restrain defendants from taking a town way in Quincy, the land of the Petitioners. Petitioners claim that no notice was given them of the laying out of the way, and that the damages for such laying out were unlawfully awarded. Respondents deny these allegations. By agreement the way is to be built excepting on the premises of the complainants. E. C. Banbury for Complainants; John Q. Adams for Respondents.

A Price on G. A. R.—A GENTLEMAN'S EYE.—Mr. Frank Baker, a gentleman well known in musical circles, and Principal of the High School in East Weymouth, Mass., some weeks ago had a piece of coal enter his eye. It was taken out in one minute by Dr. Bragg, the famous Surgeon of Chelsea. If we consider the nature of this delicate organ, and the length of time it had remained in the eye without producing serious effects, it reflects credit upon Dr. Bragg for his matchless skill in detecting at once the foreign body, and so speedily removing it.

The foundations of the new school-house at South Braintree are laid, and the frame is going up.

A. RAYMOND, Jr.

Braintree.

The Town House is receiving a fresh coat of paint, at the hands of Mr. T. B. Stoddard, giving it a very handsome appearance. We learn that the Sebcontee contemplates an improvement of the interior by freasing the walls.

The 3d day of July proximo will usher in the 60th anniversary of the settlement of Rev. Dr. Stors over the First Society. Not one of the persons who were members of the church, or its members, are living. Dr. Stors was present at the service last Sunday morning, and assisted in baptizing the candidates.

The average age of persons married in Braintree in 1870, was, males 28 1/4 years; females, 23 1/3 years.

The Braintree Savings Institution is in a flourishing condition, the business for the two months which have elapsed since its organization having exceeded the most sanguine expectations of the projectors of the enterprise.

The case of N. L. White, Esq., for reward of damages on account of widow's pension, in front of his residence in East Braintree, which has been on trial at Lincoln Hall, was decided on Tuesday the 2d, awarding him $35.00 on the South side, and $100.00 on the North side.

The original claim of the Commissioners was $5.00 on the South side, and $300.00 on the North side, making the award of the Jury $135 less than that of the Commissioners. We learn that Mr. White claimed about $200.00 damage.

Gen. Thayer still continues in feeble health. He was however able to take position in front of his residence, December 4th, and return the salute of the soldiers.

Twenty-seven persons united with the First Congregational Church, last Sabbath morning, June 1, after a profession of their faith and saying by letter from other churches. Ten of this number received the rite of baptism from the hands of the venerable pastor, Rev. Dr. Stors. Five children were baptized in the afternoon by the junior pastor, Rev. Mr. Tenney. It is expected that about twenty more candidates will be admitted to the church at the next communion.

EAST BRAINTREE.—At our town meetings appointments are made in a number of "Field Drivers," whose election creates every little excitement, and yet it is curious how notwithstanding the official insignificance, they may become of importance in a community, when a certain class of evil arise—fairly illustrating the truth inscribed upon R. W. Emerson—"the importance of little things." Hyatt, the post, it is said, "awoke one morning and found himself famous" so in like manner, has one of the humble officials to whom we have referred—one who lives amongst us, and has been, hitherto, a stranger to fame, suddenly bloomed into full notoriety. The parson who has these is—a cow which had been very sick in the habit of roaming in strange pastures, was observed one day in a field, again entering which it strolled back, as he had observed—to the strecthes of which the blade of manhood bloomed into full notoriety. so many of us began to get dryness, and we know that it must be the effect of the air.

After this we quite resigned ourselves to the death which seemed certain, and went to work to make our preparations for the worst. We suffered much pain, but suffered not in vain. We have not yet recovered from the effects of the disease, but we are now in a much better condition.

ORNAMENTS are chiefly of enamel upon gold, silver, or copper, and the enameled pieces are very prettily done; even the form of the bracelet is very elegant. The bracelets are made of fine wire, and the stones are set in gold, silver, or copper.

BONNETS are round, and fit the head well. They are made of fine wire, and the stones are set in gold, silver, or copper.

The Boy and the Brook.

(Lester's new Poem.)

Down from what mountain doest thou come?
The brook flows through the village street;

A boy comes forth to wash his hands,

Washing his hands, he stands,

In the water cool and sweet.

"Brook, from what mountain doest thou come?"

"My brook cool and sweet!"

"Come from you mountain high and cold,

Where the snow lies deep and white,

And melts in the summer heat."

"Brook, to what river doest thou go?"

"O my brook cool and sweet!"

"I go to the river below there,

Where the willows grow,

And sun and shade meet."

"Brook, to what garden doest thou go?"

"O my brook cool and sweet!"

"I go to the garden in the vale,

Where the flowers long the nightingale,

Her lovesong fills the air."

"Brook, to what fountain doest thou go?"

"O my brook cool and sweet!"

"I go to the fountain, at whose brink,

There comes to drink,

I rise to meet her, and kiss her chin,

And my joy is then complete."

REMOVING IRON-MOULD FROM FABRICS.—A writer in the Chevalier News advises the best method for removing stains of iron-mould from fabrics, that the mark be first wet with yellow sulphide of ammonia, which will be immediately blackened. After being left a minute or two to penetrate, the stain is washed out with cold, diluted chloro-acid, by which it is at once removed. Finally, wash well with water. This method is said to avoid the serious objection of weakening and rotting the fibers.

A NEW REMEDY FOR INTERMITTENT FEVER.—German physicians, as appears from medical journals, have found a substitute of the leaves of the Equisetum globosus, or Australian gunn-tree, to be a remedy for intermittent fever. Dr. Lorenz gave it to fifty-three patients, of whom forty-three were completely cured.

SOMETHING OF A FARM.

A correspondent, writing from Peoria, Illinois, gives the following account of the scale upon which farming is done at the West:

"The form of M. L. Sullivan, of Burr Oak, near Chadsworth, Livingston County, Illinois, is not only a big but a very profitable enterprise. The farm is eight miles from town, containing 40,950 acres—64 sections. Government survey. It is subdivided into thirty-two farms of 1,280 acres each. Each farm has a captain, and a second lieutenant, all under control of a commander-in-chief, its owner and Brigadier-General.
